"New Again"

That's what some one said about a suit we cleaned for them the other day.

And you will say the same thing if you'll bring that soiled skirt or full suit to us and let us give it a treatment in our Dry Cleaning Department. Old changed to new.

THE TASTE TELLS.

In making coffee or tea or lemonade, or anything, in fact, if too large a proportion of the ingredients is used, or not enough, they are not good, are they?

THE TASTE TELLS.

In making ice cream, if the proportions are not right, it isn't good, is it?

THE TASTE TELLS. The bureau of experts who fashioned the pure food law agreed on what constituted the right proportions in making ice cream. To be RIGHT, it must taste right, look tempting and contain a certain amount of butter fat—not more, not less.

THE TASTE TELLS. The fact that we are doing the largest ice cream business in Ogden proves that we are making it according to the pure food experts' ideas of what is GOOD ice cream—that we are making it RIGHT, not too rich—just rich enough.

THE TASTE TELLS. The people are buying "Delicia" in larger quantities every day, because it satisfies their taste.
